TRANSCRIPT AUTHORIZATION ORDER

AND NOW, this 28th day of September, 2022, the Court having reviewed the draft transcript of the proceeding held on July 27, 2022 in regard to the Objection to Claim of Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB (Claim 3), Document No. 25, and having determined that the transcript should be released to the attorneys and any self-represented Parties for review to determine whether any redactions should be made before the transcript is made available to the public,<sup>1</sup> it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that,

<sup>1</sup> The identification of any redactions that should be made from the transcript are the responsibility of the attorneys in the case or any self-represented Parties, not the Court. For information on the scope of and procedure for requesting redactions, see Fed.R.Bankr.P. 9037, and Volume 6 – Section 510.25.20 and Volume 10 – Section 330.10.10 of the “Guide to Judiciary

(1) Notification that the transcript has been prepared shall be noted on the docket and the Transcriber shall promptly release the transcript to the attorney who ordered the transcript and is also free to submit a bill for the services provided.

(2) The transcript is being released at this time only to the ordering attorney, who is expected to review it for identification of any material that should be redacted. If any other attorney in the case, or any self-represented party, has any concerns that the transcript may contain material that should be redacted, it is up to that person to contact the Transcriber and make arrangements to obtain a copy of the transcript for review following payment of the applicable fee.

(3) On or before October 5, 2022, attorneys must inform the Court by filing a “Notice of Redaction” of an intent to direct the redaction of any personal data identifiers from the transcript. If no such Notice of Redaction is filed by the deadline by the ordering attorney or any other attorney, the Court will assume redaction of personal data identifiers from the transcript is not necessary.

(4) On or before October 19, 2022, any self-represented Party must inform the Court by filing a “Notice of Redaction” of his or her intent to direct the redaction of any personal data identifiers from the transcript. If no such Notice of Redaction is filed by the deadline by any self-represented Party, the Court will assume redaction of personal data identifiers from the transcript as to self-represented Parties is not necessary.

Policy,” which are published by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts and available on its web site.

(5) On or before October 19, 2022, any attorney or self-represented Party may file an appropriate motion to seek redaction of any material other than personal data identifiers from the transcript, such motion to specifically identify the material sought to be redacted and the reason why redaction would be justified. If any such motion is timely filed, the Court will issue a further scheduling order.

(6) If any Notice of Redactions is timely filed, then unless ordered otherwise, on or before October 31, 2022, the Transcriber shall perform the redactions as set forth therein and provide a redacted version of the transcript to the Clerk, who shall note its receipt on the docket, while retaining the unredacted version of the transcript.
